From the Principal’s Pen…

Now that the excitement of the holiday season, and the required recovery time, has passed, we are back at work teaching and learning every day at CSAS! From now until Spring break is a great, uninterrupted time of study for teachers and students. Please be sure your student stays healthy and doesn’t miss any of the action.

Speaking of action, last Saturday I spoke with dozens of families about our school at the School Choice fair held at Northgate Mall. We have some amazing programs going on across our county for parents to choose from – what a gift to have choices for public education! We received several questions about our building and a possible move. Please believe me (and Mr. Boles) when I say I know as much as you do. The superintendent and school board make those decisions. If you are concerned about the future of our program and have ideas to share, I encourage you to get involved. I have personal opinions and am happy to share those with you. However, the final decisions are majorly influenced by you—the parents, alumni, and involved citizens. My best advice is to do your homework, listen to proposals and reasoning, speak to educators, and be as involved as you can be. The one thing I know for sure is we are doing things right because we are the #1 requested school of choice in HCS, which means we will be around for a long time to come. Go Patriots!! –Kelly
